Hydropower and dams' positive role is now widely recognized

Hydropower and dams' positive role is now widely recognized. The 20th African President for ICOLD, Mr. [Name], was elected during the Kyoto Congress. The congress was a success, with the launch of a World Declaration on Hydropower and Dams. The declaration emphasizes the positive role of hydropower and dams in sustainable development, particularly in the context of climate change and energy security. The declaration also calls for increased international cooperation and support for hydropower and dam projects in developing countries.

Mr. [Name], President of ICOLD, was elected during the Kyoto Congress. He is a prominent figure in the dam industry and has served in various capacities for ICOLD. He is committed to promoting the development and safe operation of dams and hydropower projects in Africa and around the world.
